CARIBBEAN SEA JAZZ FESTIVAL ARUBA 2017

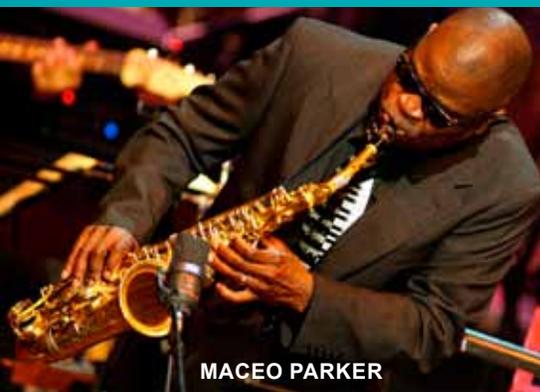

Renaissance Festival Plaza

Last year was a special one, with the 10th anniversary of Aruba's greatest and most beloved festival. Top quality food, cultural activities and, of course, great music. A tough act to follow, yet for the kickoff of a new decade the Caribbean Sea Jazz Festival is back with a vengeance!

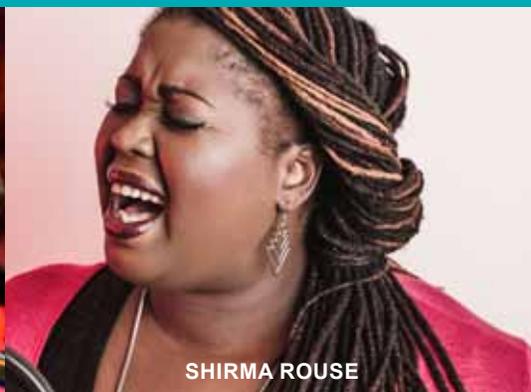

This 11th edition we proudly present you with an all-new lineup, including both international stars and local talents. Confirmed names include: Ruben Blades, Maceo Parker, Zuco 103, Jesse van Ruller Trio, NG La Banda, Corey Henry & the Funk Apostles and Shirma Rouse, with many more to be announced. Remaining a cultural event, the CSJF 2017 offers a refreshed variety of tasty food and arts that mark the Caribbean.

For the fifth time, the Renaissance Festival Plaza will be the throbbing heart of the festival. Located on the seaside of Oranjestad, this venue will once again welcome our visitors with its scenic sunsets and soothing sea breeze. Besides being the main area for the festival, the Plaza is your stop for several pre- and afterparties.

THE EVENT

In 2006, Erik Eman pursued his dream and organized the Caribbean Sea Jazz Festival. Inspired by the North Sea Jazz Festival and Saint Lucia Jazz, his goal was to create a platform for both musical talent from the region and stars from around the globe. Eleven years later the CSJF has grown into an internationally renowned event, attracting visitors of every age and nationality.

True to its name, the CSJF is a showcase of anything that represents the true island vibe. The great names of Jazz, Latin, Soul, Funk, Salsa, Hip-hop and Blues perform on multiple stages, while regional restaurants and local artisans contribute to its cultural vibe. Over the years, the CSJF has collaborated with several non-profit organizations and has granted a stage to young art performers from the Caribbean.

We are ready to dive into a new decennium, and happy to welcome you on the wave. Come join us on the 11th edition of the Caribbean Sea Jazz Festival!
